

Tim Piper

Working Class Hero

Los Angeles, CA- "My fascination is always with John," says Tim Piper of the group Imagine (The Beatles Tribute). Almost 30 years after he performed his first cover of a Beatles hit, Tim Piper has won the coveted role in the upcoming E! Channel special "The John Lennon Story". Tim portrays John-but those who have rubbed shoulders with Tim swear Tim Virtually "becomes" John. Unlike most of the John Lennons in other Beatle shows, Tim's hair is not a wig. You don't have to close your eyes to "imagine" that your experience is real. Tim Piper is the sort of guy who'll be sitting in a coffee shop or walking through a store and some stranger will approach him to ask, "Do you know who you look like...?" And not only does he look like John, but he eerily sounds like John and even manages somehow play like John and even move like John. Tim Piper won the role on the E! Channel over hundreds of Lennon wannabes. The docudrama which focuses on John Lennon's final months will be part of the E! Channel's "Hollywood's True Stories" series.

WORKING CLASS HERO

starring TIM PIPER

WORKING CLASS HERO, the leading worldwide touring show that captures John Lennon with a visual impact, and an incredible sound and excitement that can only be described as “Miraculous” features Hollywood’s E! Channel pick for the role